Now Accepting Fastest 20 Nominations for Central Oregon's Fastest Growing Businesses 2020

CBN, along with Columbia Bank and Capstone CPA's, have decided to keep this award moving forward for 2020. We deliberated for weeks as we realize the heavy burden of COVID on many businesses, however we decided to go glass half full, continue the momentum of the past three years and honor those businesses that are still thriving. Please nominate your business, click here for details.

Corporate Activity Tax Registrations Top 15,000

The Department of Revenue reminds business owners and their tax preparers that once their business has earned more than $750,000 in commercial activity for the year, they are required to register for Oregon's Corporate Activity Tax (CAT) within 30 days.

United Way Kicks off Annual Fundraising Campaign Today

United Way of Central Oregon officially kicks off its annual community fundraising campaign today, Thursday, September 24. The nonprofit is raising funds to help members of the community who are most impacted by current crises to recover and to build resilience, and to help local nonprofits to adapt.

Digital Business & Livable Communities

When COVID-19 hit, digital business solutions proved critical to maintaining service and business continuity across a broad spectrum of industries. The pandemic has revealed new possibilities for going beyond business as usual thought largely aspirational only months ago. The digital business evolution now taking place offers greater consumer access to all kinds of services, plus added business benefits, like boosting efficiency and helping to promote more livable communities. Department of Labor Issues New Guidance for Tracking Teleworkers' Hours

Last week, the U.S. Department of Labor's Wage and Hour Division (WHD) issued Field Assistance Bulletin (FAB) 2020-5, clarifying employers' obligation to track work hours for employees working remotely. Although the DOL's guidance stems from the increase in employees working from home due to COVID-19, it nonetheless applies to everyone working from home, whether due to COVID-19 or not.
