“We have been working with CBN for just two months now. With the two articles we have had published, we have already started receiving several leads for new clients who have seen the articles and are interested in working with us. CBN has done a great job of putting us out there and getting us noticed!”

Mollie Boyd, Senior Vice President of Operations
 SAGE Program Underwriters, Inc.
