“We have been working with CBN for just two months now. With the two articles we have had published, we have already started receiving several leads for new clients who have seen the articles and are interested in working with us. CBN has done a great job of putting us out there and getting us noticed!”

Duke Warner Trend Report

The New Year has arrived in Central Oregon, and the real estate market remains in extremely high demand — regardless of the winter temperatures, which will typically indicate a slower-paced real estate environment.

Oregon State University Happenings

With the winter term's end upon us, and spring soon to follow, we hope you are feeling as optimistic as we are. In the next few months, along with our usual offerings, our office is focused on providing opportunities for recruiters to learn, connect and share around the topics of diversity, equity and inclusion.

BrightSide Animal Center to Offer Training for Volunteers & Fosters

BrightSide Animal Center has scheduled a number of training sessions for people who are interested in fostering pets, as well as volunteering for BrightSide in general. In the spring BrightSide has a great need for foster volunteers to care for kittens for up to about eight weeks. Foster training is required for new foster volunteers.
